HORSEMEN ARE GETTING ACTIVE

Working Out Their Fast Ones at the Trotting Park.

The local speedsters are busy at the old Rockingham trotting park where their fast steeds are being trained for the summer and fall races. About a dozen fast ones owned by P. T. McWilliams, Dan Mahoney, Mr. Kent of Newmarket and Joe Schurman are quartered there under the careful eye of their trainers. It looks as if Portsmouth reinsmen were going to do something on the turf in 1918 to make up for the quiet spell they enjoyed when the slipping was good on the speedway during the past winter. It cannot be done around the warm office stove just now and those who like the sport are anxiously awaiting the date when the man in the judge's stand will "let them go."

You Will Appreciate the Value of Wool More and More as the War Goes On

In speaking of wool we mean pure wool fabrics, unadulterated with cotton or shoddy. The market next fall will be full of garments made from fabrics with only a percentage of wool, while all wool fabrics will be at a new level of high price. It's the best of economy to buy suits and coats now—prices are lower than the future predicts, and more important is the fine quality of all wool fabrics used in these. There are remarkably pretty suits of serge and gabardine at prices, $25, $27.50 and $28.50. Three grades in tone, navy, brown, grey and black, $35, $42 and $50. Ladies' spring and summer coats, $16.50, $25 to $75.00.

TO CUT USE OF SUGAR FOR CANDY

Washington, May 6.—A new plan for the restriction of sugar used in confectionery and soft drinks is announced by the food administration to go into effect May 15.

Manufacturers are to be limited to 30 per cent of last year's requirements. This step is taken in order to insure a sufficient supply of sugar for essential food products such as preserves, jams, etc. Under the new plan distribution will be policed and under a certificate system evasions will be prevented.

Manufacturers of nonedible products will be forced to go entirely without sugar.

The sugar ration will be confined to confectionery, condiments, soda water, chocolate, candies, beverage syrups, fruit syrups, flavoring extracts, chewing gum, sweet pickles, wine and cereals. Those who entered the business or increased their capacity after April 1 of this year will be cut off entirely.

It is believed the sugar stocks for necessary purposes will be sufficiently conserved under this plan, and manufacturers of essential foodstuffs and other necessary articles will be permitted to buy enough sugar to meet their full requirements. In this class are some preserves and jacks of vegetables, catsup and chili sauces, fruits and milk, manufacturers of jams, jellies and preserves, tobacco and explosives, apple butter and glycerine, drugs and honey.

Ice cream is also put in the preferred class to assure consumption of surplus milk supplies, and thus encourage dairy interests to maintain production. Tobacco is placed in the preferred class because the amount of sugar used by tobaccoists is also negligible, molasses being chiefly relied on.

The sugar ration will be enforced through the state food administrators, who will have full control of distribution. Sales must be based on sworn statements of stocks on hand and requirements.

The habit of monkeys to imitate the actions of man is utilized by wild animal hunters. The hunters walk around for some time in sight of the wild monkeys, wearing short coats. They then take them off, put guns in them and go away. The monkeys then come down to try on the coats, their feet stick and they are easily taken captive.

OVER 500 CHINESE ARE DROWNED

Peking, Tuesday, April 30.—More than 500 Chinese passengers were lost in the recent collision at Hankow, in which the Chinese steamship Kiang-Kwan was sunk by the Chinese gun-boat Chutai. The Chutai was accompanying another gunboat which had on board Premier Tuan Chi-jui, who was on the way to pay a visit to the commanders of the northern troops. A mistake in signals was the cause of the collision.

The collision wrecked the Chutai also, and she was beached.

DOVER

Dover, May 6.—One of the finest parades ever held in this city took place Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the celebration of the fire showing made by Dover in the Third Liberty Loan drive. The marchers were made up entirely of women and children, headed by the Dover City band and a platoon of police. Over three thousand marched over the route. The feature of the parade was the living Red Cross as portrayed by the young ladies of St. Mary's Accademy.

A fire which did considerable damage was discovered at the residence of James H. Morris, Summer street
Saturday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock.
The house is occupied by Mr. Horn and Charles Tobin the latter conducting a boarding house. Smoke was seen coming from all parts of the house.

An alarm was rung in front box 35
and the fire alarm quickly responded.
The firemen discovered that the fire was in the cellar. Two lines of hose were laid from the Summer street hydrants. Before the flames could be extinguished they got into the pettitions and the house was severely damaged. When the flames reached the partition between the first and second floors, many chemicals were used with effect and the fire was conquered. A great deal of damage was caused to the furniture of both tenants by the smoke and water.

Owing to the high cost of crude oil it has been suggested by the street department that there is very little hope that the streets of this city will be oiled this year. Street Commissioner Worster stated last evening that the city paid $2000 for oiling the streets last year but that it would require over $1000 to lay the dust by that method this season. It has been suggested that the old water carts be reverted to, but the department has only two water carts and the street department has been assessed eleven cents per load for water, which facts seem to indicate that Dover will be without facilities for keeping down the dust this year.

The local board for Stratford county Saturday announced the names of ternates, Roland A. Caswell, Auburn.

been recommended for a commission as second lieutenant in the field artillery at Camp Gaillard, California.
Sullivan's appointment comes as the result of an examination in which he received the highest mark 92 per cent. He is a native of Dover and a graduate of Dover High and New Hampshire
State college.

EXETER

Exeter, May 6.—Wheat raising in New Hampshire will take a boom this spring in this section when the forty acre field of David Lamprey of North Hampton will be plowed and sowed entirely with wheat. This enterprise is being taken by a Massachusetts man George E. Stickney of Newbury-port who has leased the field, and will commence the work immediately.
It will probably be one of the largest tracts of wheat in Rockingham county, and the sight of the wheat fields during the summer months will be a novelty to all in this section. Mr.
Stickney is doing much to assist the farmers in this section in the production of food during these war times, and had many a study for many years in the production and improvement of seed corn. He has also on his farm at Newburyport a field of twenty acres of wheat.

The ploughing of the 40-acre field at North Hampton is being done by Thomas Brackett of Greenland, and sowing down with his tractor. The work will be rushed to a finish as soon as possible.

RED CROSS MISSION ESCAPES GERMANS; ARRIVES IN ENGLAND.

Newcastle-on-Tyne, May 5.—The American Red Cross mission to Rou-mania, which left Jersey on March 9, has arrived here. In order to avoid contact with the Germans the Americans took a circuitous route through Russia and let Russia by a northern port. All the members of the mission are well.

The American Red Cross mission to Roumania is headed by Colonel Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond, and includes twenty-eight members, eleven of whom are women nurses. The mission arrived in Jersey in September, 1917, and did much good work in alleviating conditions in the Roumanian army, as well as among the civilian population. The peace agreement between the Russian government and the Central Powers compelled the Roumanian government to agree to an armistice, one of the conditions of which was that all foreign missions leave Roumania. The Red Cross workers arrived at Moscow on March 16 on their way home and on April 8 were reported at Kola, a Russian White Sea port.)

HENRY P. DAVIDSON HONORED
BY BRITISH

London, May 5.—Lord Lansdowne

presided at a private luncheon here yesterday at which Henry P. Davidson, chairman of the American Red Cross War Council, met several prominent Red Cross workers in England.
The Duke of Connaught sent a letter expressing his regret that he was unable to be present.

"Nobody appreciates more than myself," he wrote, "the splendid services rendered by the American Red Cross in this war, or their great generosity toward the British Empire.
The amount of money collected in the United States for Red Cross work is something of which America may well be proud."

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN A SUCCESS

At Least $4,000,000.000 Subscribed by 17,000,000 People

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 5.—An analysis of the third Liberty loan, which closed last night, shows that 17,000,000 persons bought bonds. This is seven million more than in the second issue and 12,500,000 more than the first.

The latest tabulations show $3,316,623,250, but this is incomplete and it is thought that when the full report is made that more than four billions will be received. Treasury officials expect that the full report will not be available until May 13 when the independent banks must have reported to the Federal reserve bank.

Secretary McAdoo in expressing his thanks to the nation said that he was especially pleased with the great number of subscribers.

FOURTEEN PERSONS ARRESTED

(By Associated Press)

An Atlantic Port, May 5.—Fourteen persons, one a German, were arrested when a British steamer from South American port arrived here today. Government officials met the steamer and not since the war started has there been such a rigid examination of the passengers.

The German was placed under guard soon after he entered the ship by the ship's quartermaster, and kept in confinement on the way north. A complete search was made and even two hollow canes were broken in an effort to find papers. Photograph records found in his baggage were taken. A number of papers taken from passengers and crew were also seized.

The names of the persons arrested and the charges were withheld and they will be given a hearing before a special board today.

Lieut. Commander W. H. Booth, U. S. N., who was a passenger on the steamer, said that all efforts to locate the missing collier Cyclops had failed to relieve a tragedy.

and stabbed Officer Walsh in the neck, but before he could do any more damage Officer Cronan shot him, firing four shots, three of which took effect and the other caused a slight flesh wound in Officer Walsh's side.

NEW WORLDS RECORD FOR SHIP BUILDING

Washington, May 5.—A new world's record in shipbuilding will be established tomorrow morning at 10:30 when the steel collier Tuckahoe, of 5550 tons dead weight, will be launched at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden.

The keel of the ship was laid April 8, and when the boat goes into the water tomorrow just 27 days, 2 hours and 50 minutes will have been used in its construction.

The world's record up to this time has been held by the Skinner & Eddy Company of Seattle, which launched an 8500-ton steel freighter, in 55 days.

In many respects, however, the feat accomplished in building the Tuckahoe is a more remarkable one than appears from the figures. Not only has the hull been completed, but the boilers are in place, the engines installed, masts stepped, funnels in place, propeller fitted and rudder hung. It is estimated that the ship can be completed and delivered for service 15 days after the launching, thus establishing a record of 42 days from the laying of the keel.

The launching will be made the occasion of a celebration, and President Wilson has written a letter to the workmen and executive staff of the New York Shipbuilding Company which will be read. Chairman Edward M. Hurley of the United States shipbuilding board and Charles M. Schwab, director-general of the emergency fleet corporation, will make addresses. The ship will be christened by Miss Helen Hurley, young daughter of Chairman Hurley.

The Tuckahoe is 330 feet long, beam of 50 feet, and will make a speed of not less than 10 1/2 knots an hour.

STRATHAM MAN A SUICIDE

George H. Odell of Stratham, one of the prominent men of that town, committed suicide on Sunday morning by hanging. He arose early and apparently without any cause whatever went to the barn and some time later his dead body was found hanging to a beam. He was 42 years of age.

A physician was called but he was dead and Medical Referee G. E. Pender of this city called and after viewing the body and satisfying himself it was suicide, turned the body over to the undertaker. Mr. Odell has been a prominent citizen of Stratham and for years engaged in a store there. No reason is known by his family for his rash act.

He leaves a wife, four sons and three daughters. Three of his sons are in the army.

REASON FOR EVERY AIR ACCIDENT

(By Associated Press)

Dallas, Texas, April 5.—There is a reason for every aviation accident. Sometimes it is an obvious one but too often only the dead flyer ever knew just what sent his machine crashing to the ground.

Up to the middle of April there had been 86 fatalities in the six Texas aviation camps and in many of the accidents that caused them no one knew just what unexpected condition, just what weakness in man or material had developed high in the air. Fort Worth with its three aviation fields and its preponderance of flyers training under the British officers in the Royal Flying Corps had 19 deaths up to April 17; Houston was next with 15.

Crashes may be due to disapplication of rules, unfamiliarity with peculiar aerial conditions, faulty material in the airplane, sudden fright, seizing the aviator or mere recklessness.

In flying there are no brakes to apply. The pilot must be alert and ready for any emergency. A plane just leaving the field has the advantage over a plane about to land in an impending disaster. The landing plane is going much faster than the one just "revved up." The pilot just starting up must be careful not to misjudge his start and thus be overtaken by a plane that is powerless to avoid the crash.

One of the most common reasons for accidents as given by instructors, is disobedience of orders. At a certain height and going at a certain well defined speed, so many loops or dives or whatever maneuver is to be adapted, may be made with safety. If the aviator disregards the laws of mathematics in which he has been drilled and undertakes one more loop, the consequences may prove fatal.

Landing in a cross wind is highly dangerous. It frequently causes the plane to turn completely over and thus the pilot underneath the heavy engine.

There have been numerous deaths. Flight commanders say from pilots losing their nerve. The diver finds he has lost control of his engine, makes a frantic effort to right the plane, fails the first time, lapses into unconsciousness and the plane falls to earth at such terrific speed that the aviator is dead before he reaches the ground.

During their periods of instruction, cadets about to fly are given a strict course to follow in the air. The location in which some airplanes have fallen indicated that the cadets, once up in the air, disregarded their instructions and followed their own sweet will. According to the rules of the air if each plane has kept its course, under normal conditions collision with another plane is not possible.

An aviator must understand meteorology, photography, wireless telegraphy and be a master of machine-gun fire. When he becomes a flying cadet and wears a white hat band, he gets his first ride aloft. After a few trips he does "solo," that is, goes up alone, the most important part of his training. Next he flies in formation and then on cross country trips where he is compelled to land guided only by maps and instruments. Then comes his higher development with machine-gun fire and other special training which increases his usefulness as one of the "eyes of the army."

Officers commanding the Texas camps, while deploring the fatalities that have accompanied the training of Uncle Sam's flyers, say that, in comparison with the number of men who have been trained and become expert, the fatalities are surprisingly small.

NEW GAS TRIED ON AMERICANS

American Army in France. Battle front, May 5.—A new type of German liquid gas was projected into the American lines today in Picardy. The gas in liquid form was contained in a bottle which, when broken, gave off a white gas for five minutes. No report was heard and it is thought to be protected by springs or by air pressure. It created nausea and coughing, but nobody was injured.

POLICE NEWS

Dan Davenport and Olin Eric were arrested here on Saturday by the local police at the request of the Concord police where they were wanted for alleged larceny of clothing from lodging houses. They were taken back to Concord Sunday afternoon.

The police made a raid on a bunch of crap shooters at the creek on Sunday and six young men were arrested. It is said that there were nearly evenly matched about three crap games in the rear of a store on Lebanon street when the police arrived but they got word in time to get away. There has not been an arrest for drunkenness since Tuesday night.

Helping to Feed the World.

News comes from Washington that the White House lawn will be grazed by sheep this season, this novel method of keeping the grass down having been adopted as a "war measure," of course. The sheep will not only keep the lawn well cropped, thus saving the labor of mowing, but will be producing something of value in the meantime and will in a certain sense be ornamental, a small flock of very choice animals having been procured for the purpose. President Wilson is not the originator of this scheme, which has been practiced by owners of fine estates in different places, but a flock of sheep contentedly grazing on the White House lawn will be a novelty to the people of Washington and visitors to the national capital.

This departure from the common practice will rightly be regarded more as a fad than a serious effort to increase production, something which is now being forcibly urged upon all the people, but the example may be worth something nevertheless. It is a time for everybody to turn everything to account, and where lawns are spacious enough for the purpose no fault can be found if the owners see fit to stock them with sheep through the summer. This should be fully as helpful to the cause of production as it would be to plow up and cultivate the land, while the picture presented to the eye should be more pleasing and agreeable.

But not many have lawns large enough for sheep pastures, and not all who have will put them to that use. The cultivation of lawns last year was quite common, in some cases being carried to extremes, and there will probably be more or less of the same sort of thing this year, though as a rule there is land enough to cultivate without ripping up lawns that have been perfected by years of patient labor and pains.

The thing for the people to do is to avoid fadism and get down to the practical in this matter of feeding the country and the Allies until the return of normal conditions. A good beginning was made last year and there is much to indicate that even greater results will be achieved this year. The experience gained last year by many who had never tilled the soil before should be worth much in the operations of the coming season. The need of united and earnest effort is understood by all and, happily, the disposition to rise to the occasion appears to be very earnest and widespread.

Success to every man, woman, boy and girl who this year endeavors to add to the country's food supply even in the slightest degree! Every effort along this line will be most praiseworthy. If all will do their best in their own way, whether it be raising a patch of beans or pasturing a few sheep on the lawn, the combined results will be altogether beneficial and it will have been demonstrated that the patriotism of the American people does not consist alone in the salutation of the flag.

Local self-government is granted to the inhabitants of the Island of Nantucket with reference to the operation of automobiles, which up to this time has been prohibited there. But the Massachusetts Legislature has passed a bill which has been signed by Governor McCall, giving the people of the island a chance to say whether this condition shall continue or whether the roads shall be thrown open to the "devil-wagons." Their decision will be of interest to the state and the country.

The throwing of rice on wedding occasions has always seemed to many a foolish practice, and it is a question whether it should be tolerated when the saving of food is as important as it is now. To be sure, the amount used in this way is not great, but rice does not look well on sidewalks and railroad station platforms at a time when people are being urged to save everything eatable to the last grain.

Readers of this paper may recall what it recently had to say on the subject of perjury. That the evil was not exaggerated is manifested by the fact that it is being discovered that there have been many cases of perjury in connection with military questionnaires. Perhaps in these cases the proper punishment may be administered, as it should be in every case of false swearing.

It is news to ex-liquor dealers and the people of the state generally that near-beer cannot be sold under the prohibitory law. Such a ruling has been made, however, and unless it is set aside the Granite State will be very thoroughly Saharaized.

Some public eating places in different cities are advertising rolls so skillfully made that they appear to be composed of all-wheat flour. It might be well for some of the food regulators to give them a trial and see whether they are or not.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Merely To Be in Fashion
(From the Toronto Mail and Empire)
A whole lot of countries that are officially at war with Germany might as well be at war with the planet Mars for all the effective aid they are lending in this crisis.

From $1200 Around to $1 a Year
(From the New York World)
John D. Ryan, who has been made director of aircraft production, rose from a 100-a-month position to the head of one of the greatest copper-mining concerns in the country. He now soars into the ranks of our dollar-a-year experts, which shows that aviation will do for a man.

More Scraps of Paper
(From the New York Herald)
The sanest thing that has happened in Germany in many a day was that incidental remark of Herr Ribbentrop to the Reichstag that in the face of Admiral von Capelle's recent admissions, all of the admiralty's earlier assurances of U-boat success should be thrown into the waste basket.

Too Much Talk
(From the Kansas City Times)
The vice president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works says "the greatest engine of destruction that has yet been produced in artillery will move out," and so forth. We hope the vice president is right. But it might be suggested to him that the Germans were smart to say nothing about the supergun until the bombardment of Paris had actually begun.

"Buddy"
(From the New York Herald)
"Sammy" and "Amex" as titles for the American soldiers in France are disliked by the men. Don Martin, special correspondent with the American Army in France, says the men prefer to be called "buddies," "buddy," "buddy," being in popular use in the West and South as well as in England for companion or chum. Whatever the reason no one will question the right of the men to choose their own appellation.

The Writing on the Wall
(From the New York World)
That democracy is marching on even in Prussia is shown by the warning of the Chancellor, addressing the Diet in favor of the Electoral Reform Bill: "What we refuse to yield today we may later have wrung from us amid severe convulsions of national life." Some of these convulsions are being hastened just now on the western front.

Hard Pounding
(From the Kansas City Times)
"Hard pounding, gentlemen," said the Duke of Wellington at Waterloo, "we shall see who can pound longest." In that sentiment is the keynote of the war for the Allies. The side that can stand punishment and then come back strongest is the side that will win the final victory. Can there be the slightest doubt that the nations that are fighting for freedom are the nations that can meet the Duke of Wellington's test?

A Social Experiment
(From the New York Herald)
The new Bureau of Juvenile Research instituted in Ohio inaugurates an important experiment. It undertakes to segregate the socially unfit and thus protect society from contamination.

This is the first bureau of its kind to be established in the United States and its working will be followed with keen interest by all interested in sociological questions. Instead of sending young offenders to reformatories they will be consigned to the Bureau of Juvenile Research, which will investigate their antecedents and home surroundings, meanwhile detaining them for observation and test of their mental and physical condition. This is a big contract, but if the work results in the proper care of defectives and cure and the restoration to their homes of children who have been merely wayward or accidentally delinquent it will speedily be instituted in other states.

Why, Then, Give Up German?
(From the Yale Alumni Weekly)
Three weeks ago the newspapers carried a war correspondent's story concerning the capture of some German soldiers by Canadian troops; two mortal hours elapsed before anyone could be found who understood enough German to interrogate the prisoners on military questions of the most immediate importance to the British defense. A week later appeared the story of an American patrol that had been fortunate enough to creep close to some German trenches, but who were unable to understand a word of the conversation which they overheard. The same week was published the story of the time it took to find an American soldier or officer in the front line trenches who could decipher a manuscript diary found in a German trench that had been captured. Coincidentally with these accounts, the American newspapers published news items concerning the giving up of the study of German in a new group of American schools. While the practical need for ordinary understanding of the German tongue was thus being forced on American attention, our colleges and schools were discontinuing its study.

Sympathy for the Russian People
None with the Bolsheviks.
(From the New York Herald)
It is natural that Mr. Herman Bornstein's graphic description of the evils which have befallen Russia should arouse sincere sympathy in the hearts of the American people. That the conditions revealed by Mr. Bornstein's cable despatches to the papers make a special appeal to the recently formed American League to Aid and Co-operate with Russia is not surprising.

If that organization is to accomplish anything worth while, anything to justify its existence, however, it is of first importance that those identified with it should keep constantly in mind the incontestable fact that for the ill from which the people of Russia are suffering the hand of anarchists calling themselves Bolsheviks are primarily responsible. Sympathy for the Russian people is justified. There can be no justification for any believer in democracy having sympathy with the Bolsheviks.

Those of that band who are not paid tools of Germany have permitted themselves to be the dupes of Germany's agents. The game they have played and are playing, one and all, is Germany's game. Lord Robert Cecil is right when he says that realizing the inevitability of failure in the west, the programme of the Germans is to get such a stranglehold in the east that Russia will remain their victim forever. In the carrying forward of that programme the Bolsheviks are the best allies Prussianism has or could wish.

What has happened in the Ukraine—the establishment there of a German military government—is what will happen to all of Russia unless practical steps are taken to prevent its happening. As yet the Russian people, stunned by the magnitude of their country's betrayal, have shown no ability to meet the menace of the German advance—either that of Germany's armies or that presented by the control over the putative government at Moscow by Germany's advance agents.

ASKS HALF RATE RAIL FARE FOR SOLDIERS AND SEAMEN

Washington, D. C., May 5.—Seaman John Jones is given shore leave for one month at the port of New York. His home is in California. If he had the money he would step right into a transcontinental express train and hurry home to mother, wife or sweetheart. But he hasn't the money. So he spends that month in New York with men and women he does not know.

The bill introduced today by Senator Calder of New York would remedy that condition of affairs. It would make half rates on all railroads under control of the government (which would include every main line in the country) for seamen and soldiers on leaves of absence.

In introducing the bill, Senator Calder explained that in many instances soldiers and seamen had not seen their families for many months when they were given leaves of absence, and that owing to the high railroad rates they were unable to make trips home.

The bill has been referred to the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce.

The Herald has all the news all the time.

DRY AIR

We were the first to talk about dry air refrigerators—about 35 years ago. And "they" laughed at us—said "it was an impossibility. A refrigerator with wet ice in it just had to be damp."

Now every refrigerator is a "dry air refrigerator," so we must have been right.

But now, same as 35 years ago, the BALDWIN is the only perfectly dry refrigerator on the market. Baldwin air circulation—different from the others—does it. Our catalogue show 1x50 styles of the "Dry Air" kind—one of them will please you or we make specials to fit your space.

ANNUAL G. A. R. MEMORIAL SERVICE

Impressive and Interesting Exercises Conducted Jointly By Storer Post
and Corps Sunday Afternoon

As a tribute of respect to those members whose deaths have occurred the past year, the annual memorial services of Storer Post No. 1, G. A. R., and its auxiliary, Storer Relief Corps, No. 6, were held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in G. A. R. hall. The gathering was impressive and largely attended. In the center of the hall was the altar covered with a large silk American flag and on this stood an open Bible. Around this were arranged seven vacant chairs draped in black and white in memory of those who had passed away during the year, six members of the Post and one of the Relief Corps. Four large silk flags in their standards stood at the corners.

The exercises were opened by Storer Relief Corps, No. 6, the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Ballou being in charge. Mrs. Emma B. Wendell, past president of the Corps, gave the address in memory of Mrs. Marinda N. Lang, the one member of the organization whose death occurred in the past year. The secretary, Mrs. Plalsted, read the record of Mrs. Lang. She was a charter member and elected treasurer of the Corps in 1891, and held that office at the time of her death, serving 22 years. She served as chairman of the finance committee in 1892 and 1893, and chairman of the conference committee for 12 years. Her death occurred June 3, 1917. The address was as follows:

"In writing this little memorial for our late treasurer, Mrs. Lang, it seems as though it were for a life long friend. While only having a passing acquaintance with her at first, I became quite intimately associated with her through the work of the Woman's Relief Corps for five years through the office of president and secretary. I was brought in close touch with her and her work. I always found her very congenial, ready to aid and lend a hand where it was needed. She was devoted to the work of the Relief Corps, jealously guarding its finances for so many years, even when suffering from bodily ailments she was ever ready to think and do for the benefit of this Corps. Oftentimes have care, sorrow and affliction been her portion, by the passing out of those who were dear and dear to her. She, too, has finally answered the summons, and has gone to receive the rest that remained for the people of God.

"How sweet the memory of the best. Who, free from care, are now at rest. No more disturbed by sin or pain. No more to know earth's toils again. No more to shed the sorrowing tear. Or part with friends most truly dear. No more to mourn in secret grief. For whom they cannot bring relief. No more to hear within their breast. The burdens of those long distress. No more to mourn for friends who stay From Zion's land, content, away. But far from every earthly ill. Their names are held in memory still. By one who never forgets his fold. Till Truth shall fall, and Time grow old."

The Aeolian Quartet kindly gave its services for the occasion and its selections rendered in a manner unsurpassed, added much to the beauty of the service. Its members are Ernest J. Cook, John Mitchell, Freeman Caswell and Ira A. Newell. Following Mrs. Wendell's address the quartet sang "I'm a Pilgrim."

Chaplain Joseph S. Doolittle of Storer Post then introduced Miss Theresa Conlon, a pupil of the seventh grade of the Whipple school, who, in behalf of the school children of the city, presented the memorial wreath of white immortelles with six stars in memory of the departed comrades.

Miss Conlon was given the honor to present the wreath as her address was considered the best written by any pupil of her grade. But another fact seemed eminently fitting that she should have been selected, although not mentioned, this being that the little miss has a brother at the front in France.

Chaplain Doolittle spoke as follows: "Mr. Commander, for the honor you have conferred upon me of introducing to you the young lady who has been selected for a patriotic service, I thank you. Today this service reminds me, who were the blue, of the sacrifices of the young girls of the '60's, who so willingly gave up their evenings, and Saturday holidays, to scrape lint which was so essentially necessary in hospitals for wounded men. While the manufacture of surgical dressings is made by other methods, yet in other ways the young ladies of today are engaged in loving and patriotic service for our land, in this its hour of direst need, as the institution of the Junior Red Cross, Camp Fire Girls and other patriotic organizations amply testify. It has been my privilege during the past winter to witness the earnestness with which the young girls of today discharged the self-imposed duties pertaining to the selling of Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps. No days were too cold to deter them from not only doing their bit, but doing their all, to further the cause in which their very souls were enlisted. So today it is with unfeigned pleasure that I present to you Miss Theresa Conlon, who will now perform a pleasant and patriotic duty, which will endear her to the little remnant of the Grand Army of the Republic, who have assembled here today to honor the memory of departed comrades, and also to our auxiliary bodies, and all lovers of our Country. May we not all rejoice that such as these are to be the mothers of future heroes, who will inherit the spirit of loyalty so much in evidence today. That loyalty which is inspiring the Sons of America to do, and if need be, to die for the cause of right in foreign lands, and on the waters that bear them from the land and hearts so dear to them, and for which they go willingly to uphold the honor of the flag, so dear to us all, and beneath whose protecting folds are marching on to make this a better world in which to live."

Miss Conlon spoke as follows: "Commander, Officers and Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic: What could inspire more patriotism in the souls of our American boys and girls of today than to meet face to face these heroes who fought for the sacred liberty of our own native land?"

In years past we have thought that our appreciation for these brave boys of '61 was at its fullest, but as our own daily lives bring us nearer and nearer into this present war we appreciate them more.

We know that you offered your lives that liberty and peace might come even to our unprotected race. We promise to use every means to continue your noble work until the liberty to which your sacrifice gave birth may be enjoyed by all races.

When we see our brothers, relatives and friends marching away into the horrors of war we think of the dreadful sufferings that you went through. If any of you live to see the United States bring the long sought peace to the universe you should feel that your heroism was as great as any soldier of today for if you had not saved liberty how could the boys of today hope to share it with other nations?

As a token of loving memory, Commander, I have the honor, in behalf of my class to present to you this wreath with its six stars in memory of the six who have gone to their eternal reward. They have passed away but their brave deeds shall never be forgotten."

Commander Henry S. Paul accepted the gift in behalf of Storer Post, saying as follows:

"Miss Conlon, pupils and teachers of the Public schools, in behalf of the members of Storer Post, G. A. R., I accept this beautiful wreath, in commemoration of our comrades who have passed on since last Memorial Day, and I assure you and your associates that the veterans greatly appreciate this kind remembrance which has been given one of the most beautiful parts of our memorial service. I desire to thank you for such excellent language of your address. It is very complimentary to you and the public schools."

The memorial service of Storer Post was then held and the records of the six deceased members read by Adjutant Meshech H. Bell as follows: George H. Howe—Born in Chelsea, Mass., 1847; residence, Newington, N. H.; occupation, farmer. Entered United States service March 13, 1865. Private in Company 1, 18th New Hampshire Volunteers. Final discharge, July 29th, 1865, as private in Company 1, 18th N. H. Volunteers, having served 1 month and 11 days. Cause of discharge, close of war. Mustered into Storer Post No. 1, Dept. of N. H., G. A. R., Jan. 6, 1914. Died Aug. 1, 1917, aged 70 years.

Ezekiel Fitzgerald—Born in Detroit, Mich., March 5, 1840; residence, Boston, Mass.; occupation, clergyman. Entered United States service Sept. 12, 1862; private in Company 1, 11th Mass. Infantry. Final discharge, June 18, 1865, as private in Co. D, 11th Mass. Infantry. Cause of discharge, expiration of term of service, having served 2 months and 6 days. Mustered into Storer Post, No. 1, Dept. of N. H., G. A. R., Sept. 15, 1915. Died Sept. 17, 1917, aged 77 years.

RECOVERS LOST TIME

That it pays to advertise in The Herald is daily borne out by facts proving conclusively that this paper is well circulated, and advertisements in it produce results. This was especially true in the case of Harry Sussman who lost an auto tire a week ago Sunday. He put a just ad in The Herald and awaited results. The tire was found by a Hyde man, who after reading The Herald ad returned the tire to Mr. Sussman.

DOUBLES CITY'S LOAN QUOTA

Portsmouth Makes Great Showing in Third Loan--Navy Yard Averaged $99.48 Per Man

Portsmouth did its full share in the third Liberty Loan and while the official figures are not available for the end of the loan on Saturday night it is known that the city more than doubled their quota. Over $300,000 is assured with all of the credits taken out for other towns and cities, as under the rate at this loan all credits will go to the town or city where the subscriber is a resident.

The total subscription in this city by the banks will be well over a million dollars, but at least $200,000 will go to the other towns and cities.

The banks all report a wonderful business during the past week and especially on Saturday the subscriptions came in so fast that they were unable to get any tabulation ready. The subscription here as it has been all over the country, is taken by a great many different people, as there are comparatively few big subscriptions in this section.

The Navy Yard as usual came to the mark with flying colors and they more than exceeded their quota and even did a greater business than for the second loan. The total figure for the yard was $425,000 or at the rate of $99.48 per man employed at the yard. That is, there are 4270 men on the payroll and the per capita average was $99.48. The total for the second loan was $303,000.

The boat shop as usual won the flag for having the largest amount of subscriptions per number of men employed. This shop who took the flag on the second loan, went over the top with $41,950. There are 160 men employed in this shop, including the apprentice boys and for the three Liberty loans they average $800 per man, a record that probably can not be duplicated in the country.

The prize hunt that was made a feature of the drive was given to John White of the Boat Shop crew and the $125.00 raised on him, will be given to war charities. The Kittery Red Cross $100, the Portsmouth Red Cross and Naval Relief the remainder.

The state made a fine showing in the loan and they stand third in the New England states, having subscribed $12,850,000 or 126 per cent over their quota. Maine leads the New England states with 149 per cent, and Connecticut second with 130, and New Hampshire third with 126 per cent.

PORTSMOUTH HIGH DEFEATED

The Portsmouth high were defeated on Saturday by the Deering high at the play grounds by the score of 4 to 2. The visitors early in the game took the lead and outplayed the local boys in all departments. They hit Klinkpatrick for three hits, and he did not get good support, while the locals were unable to connect with the ball at the right time. Thompson, Kenney and Badger played good ball for the locals and the pitching of Hillwood was the feature of the visitors game. The score by innings:

| | | | | | | | | | | | | |
|---------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|----|----|----|
| Innings | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 |
| Deering | 0 | 0 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Portis | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |

Batteries, Hillwood and Spiller; Klinkpatrick and Smith.

BASE BALL GAME

The base ball game on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross will be between a picked team from this city and the Navy Yard team, that is, a team picked from all branches of the service there, and it will be practically the team that will represent the yard in the Sunset League. The game will be called at six o'clock and at least seven innings will be played.

It will be a preliminary game to the opening of the Sunset League and being for the Red Cross everybody will have an opportunity to witness a good game and be generous.

BOARD OF VISITORS WILL INSPECT NAVAL ACADEMY

Annapolis, Md., May 5.—The Board of Visitors to the United States Naval Academy, consisting of members of both branches of Congress and prominent educators selected by President Wilson, will be officially greeted tomorrow afternoon by Lieutenant Commander W. C. Wickham, preparatory to the celebration of May Week and the general review of the midshipmen and work of the academy.

The usual social functions which mark the annual end of the Board will be omitted this year because of the war. After the formal reception the board will witness military drills on Western Field. It will be the largest military display ever held at the academy. More than 1,500 midshipmen and a battalion of officers of the naval reserve force, numbering 450, will participate. All of the academy buildings will be inspected, including the Naval Hospital, radio station and dairy farm, which is considered the last word in sanitation and hygienic condition.

TEAMS REPRESENTED

The representatives of the various baseball teams in this city present at the meeting of the Sunset League on Friday evening were: Lieut. Dole, U. S. army; Paymaster Thoreson, U. S. navy; James J. Hekey and John Matea, Knights of Columbus; James Goodrich, Morley Button Co.; W. E. Woods, P. A. C. and John McNeely, Y. M. C. A.

WILL TRAIN DRAFTS AT N. H. COLLEGE

Local Board Seeks Volunteers to Fill Quota of 22 for Mechanical Training.

New Hampshire State College at Durham has been taken over by the government and will be used as a training school for draftees along mechanical lines, similar to that at Tufts college. The men selected for this service will receive a course of training at the government's expense fitting them to serve in army positions requiring knowledge of concrete work, carpentry, gas engines, and other mechanical duties.

Chairman W. E. Marvin of Local Board No. 1, for Rockingham county today received orders from Governor Keyes to send a quota of 22 men there on May 10th. Anyone in Class 1 possessing the necessary qualifications can volunteer before May 8 for induction in the service.

The official order explaining the call follows:

"To Clerks of Local Boards.

"Call No. 206 to be entrained May 10th, 1918, for New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H.

"Call No. 206 is hereby announced, under which New Hampshire is to furnish 340 men to be entrained on May 10th, 1918, to report to the commanding officer, New Hampshire college, Durham, N. H. Your board's quota under this call is shown below. Only white men and men physically qualified for general military service may be inducted under this call. Only white men who have completed at least a grammar school education and have had some experience along mechanical lines and have some aptitude for mechanical work should be inducted, and the provisions of P. M. H. Telegram No. 3-30, relating to men actively, completely and assiduously engaged in the planning and cultivation of crops should be followed.

"The men selected for this service will receive a course of training at government expense fitting them to serve in army positions, requiring knowledge of concrete working, carpentry, electricity, blacksmithing, automobile repairing, gas engines and other mechanical duties incident to many kinds of military service at the front and behind the lines. The men taking this course will receive thorough instruction which will be of great personal value in working their way ahead both in the army and in civil life. This is an exceptional opportunity for energetic, ambitious men.

"Inasmuch as there was an apparent misunderstanding as to the training the men were to receive under call No. 195 at Tufts college, we have conferred with the officials at Durham and they assure us that the college is prepared to instruct men in carpentry, concrete working, electricity, blacksmithing, automobile repairing, gas engines and machinists work.

"Local boards may receive volunteers for this call not to exceed the allotment of the board until the close of May 8th. After May 8th no more volunteers will be accepted. If on May 9th, a sufficient number of volunteers has not come forth to fill the allotment of the local board, the board will proceed to select in sequence of order numbers a sufficient number of qualified men from within Class 1 to fill its allotment after deducting the voluntary inductions.

"Publicity should be given this call in all local newspapers and registrants urged to present themselves to their local boards for voluntary induction.

"Each man must carry with him at least two suits of underclothing, one suit of outer clothing in good condition, a sweater, a stout pair of shoes, three extra pairs of socks, and two bath towels, as he will be kept in civilian clothes during the first three weeks until he can be supplied with a uniform and other clothing."

OFFENSIVE BEGUN BY AUSTRIA

(By Associated Press)

Over the battle front along the Piave river, and in the mountainous regions of northern Italy, where the armies of the allies have been holding the line since last November, after the great retreat from the Isonza front.

There is increased tension and the long threatened blow may be expected to be made against the Italian line in a few days.

For many weeks the Austrian war office has been gathering legions from the Russian and Romanian fronts for a blow at the Italian front and it is now believed that it will not be long before the long deferred effort of the Austrians to reach the Venetian plain and break through the Italian lines will be made.

Emperor Charles, accompanied by his chief of staff and several high German officials, is reported on his way to the Italian front. Movement of troops in Great Tyrol and Trentina would seem to indicate that vast bodies of men are being transferred from other fronts in preparation for the blow which it is expected will be made on the mountainous sector.

The decision to begin a big offensive at this time is probably forced by the political and economic conditions in Austria. An offensive that shows some gain of ground may serve to avert the trouble in Austria and quell the unrest in the dual monarchy that threatens the throne of Emperor Charles.

German control of Austria is becoming more apparent. Already Tyrol and Bohemia have been ceded to Germany for food control purposes, but this move has not improved the situation. Bohemian troops have been deserting and many of them have joined the Italians and if this is not checked it threatens to disrupt the entire Austrian army.

In the meanwhile the situation in France and Flanders remains fairly quiet. There are local attacks but there has been nothing that would be rated as a general battle.

Pope Benedict has announced that the Vatican would not be a party to any peace offensive as it was convinced that it is not a good time. The peace move will be a German peace which will not be acceptable to anybody, but to prepare the German people for another "bath of blood" on the ground that the allies would break up the German nation.

Pope Benedict while anxious to do anything to shorten the war, but he does not see at this time how any move would be of value.

The situation in Ukraine shows the same ruthless overruling of the country by the Germans and the subject is referred to in a speech of the Vice-Chancellor, who stated that the Germans had taken steps to render the leaders powerless.

FIFTY DOCTORS WANTED FROM THIS STATE

Washington, D. C., May 5.—Thousands of physicians and surgeons throughout the country will be urged to enroll for service to meet the growing demands of the army and navy under a scheme decided upon today at a meeting here of practically all state committees of the General Medical Board of the Council of National Defense. The cities will be called upon to furnish most of the medical men needed, and it is expected that seven thousand will respond to the call by July 1 and five thousand more before the end of the year.

State committees, after canvassing their home conditions, are to name twice the number of men in the quota of each state, and half will be expected to answer the call. Medical men who decline commissions will be called on personally by the state committees for an explanation, and if they persist in declining their names will be referred to the Board here, which again will appeal to them.

The scheme was announced by Major Edward Martin, of Philadelphia, chairman of the meeting. None of the four hundred representatives of the state committees present suggested any other scheme to enroll the physicians and surgeons urgently needed. Major John D. McLean, secretary of the General Board, in announcing the state quotas, which are to be apportioned among counties by the state committees, said the cities must provide most of the doctors, as country communities could not spare many. The quotas follow:

Alabama, 1; Arizona, 5; Arkansas, 200; California, 200; Colorado, 100; Connecticut, 150; Delaware, 20; District of Columbia, 50; Florida, 20; Georgia, 200; Idaho, 20; Illinois, 300; Indiana, 300; Iowa, 350; Kansas, 1;

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, addressing the meeting regarding his bill to increase appointments of officers in the military medical service, declared that the General Staff of the army "is always opposed to giving additional dignity to the medical men." The bill provides for 20,000 officers in the Medical Corps. He said these men should have equal rank with line officers, because without such authority the Medical Corps can not enforce its regulations.

AUSTRIA IN AN UPROAR

Amsterdam, May 5.—Emperor Charles of Austria has empowered the Austrian Premier to adjourn Parliament and forthwith inaugurate measures to render impossible the resumption of its activities a Vienna despatch says.

A statement published in Vienna indicates that the closure of Parliament is due to the seriousness of the food situation. The statement says: "The government will devote its entire strength to the economic problem and will try to create conditions required to enable the population to hold out."

A Vienna despatch says that the Austrian Premier, Dr. von Seydler, speaking at a conference of party leaders, declared that the serious economic and food conditions made it imperative for the present government to be spared parliamentary criticism. He therefore demanded that the proposed sittings of Parliament be postponed, adding that unless the party leaders took this step the government would prevent the sessions forcibly.

(Apparently this conference, the date of which is not given, was held before the Emperor's noted.)

The President of the Lower House of Parliament said in reply to the Premier that the conditions prevailing in the country and the demand from the larger political parties for resumption of the sittings of Parliament made a further postponement impossible. The leaders of the German party favored postponement, but Dr. Victor Adler, the socialist leader, and the other party representatives, including the Polish group, were opposed. Notwithstanding their protests, the postponement of Parliament was agreed upon.

Premier von Seydler admitted the existence of many problems which must receive consideration, especially the agitation for the creation of a southern Slav state.

"However, discussion of this problem is impossible for the present," he said, "because it concerns not only Austria, but also Hungary and Bosnia. But one thing is certain. If such a state were created, it could be only under the scepter of His Majesty, as a component part of the monarchy. It could not include those parts of Austrian territory which border on the Adriatic and are closely connected with districts where the German language is spoken. But national aspirations exist also in these districts, and it is only natural that the national wishes of the south Slavs be duly considered."

Austria has been deep in difficulties, both political and economic, for more than a year, and it has been an open secret that Emperor Charles was desirous of bringing about peace. His efforts in this direction having occasionally aroused criticism in Berlin. In the last few months there have been insistent reports that the food situation in Austria was growing desperate.

It has been represented that, except for the favored classes, the people were receiving barely more than enough food to avert actual starvation. Owing to the lack of direct communications with Austria, and the difficulty of obtaining authentic information, however, it has been impossible to form any estimate as to the gravity of the food crisis. The political situation also has grown disturbing in the last few months. There have been riots in various parts of the country, and among the southern Serbs a revolutionary movement has been in progress recently.

A TEXTILE EXPOSITION IN BERLIN

Amsterdam, May 4.—All the latest inventions in the way of imitation cotton and woolen fabrics were shown at the textile exposition in Berlin this month. There was the new paper yarn underwear, produced directly from cellulose fibre; women's coats and skirts made from "cloth" manufactured from a mixture of paper yarn and silk; quilts and padded winter garments in which cellulose wadding takes the place of down and cotton-wool.

There was shown also paper-made "canvas" for tents, and paper-made machine gear. The new clothing material is as yet not cheaper than cotton, but it is fully expected that it soon will be.

Another novelty is wicker furniture finished off with paper yarn instead of split cane.

AMERICANS MAKE SUCCESSFUL RAID

With the American Army in France, May 5.—American troops in the Lorraine sector yesterday morning carried out a raid on the German lines south of Hailloville on a six hundred yard front.

After an intense but brief artillery preparation the infantry, accompanied by pioneers, went over the top and penetrated the German positions to the third line. They found not a single German.

The attack was on a German salient the Americans completely leveled the German positions, and the pioneers finished the job by blowing up all the enemy works, thus eliminating the salient.

A German raid, which it was expected would be carried out on the sector south of Verdun, failed to materialize.

(By Associated Press) A whirlpool bath is the novel treatment applied at a hospital in Manchester, Eng., for cases of rheumatism, heart disease, shell shock and debility following typhoid and dysentery. The tank, large enough for 12 men, contains four feet of water and is provided with seats on which the bathers are immersed to their necks. The temperature is kept at 53 degrees Fahrenheit, just below that of the body. The room is quiet and dimly lighted, and after an hour in the bath the men go to rest rooms.

NOTES FROM THE NEWINGTON SHIP PLANT

The grounds approaching the shipyard now look like a military camp. Twenty-five tents of the latest design with real doors have been erected and will serve as temporary quarters for the men. More tents will be added.

A fine spirit prevails among the workmen and there appears to be a determination on the part of all hands to make a record and a good showing. Full speed ahead appears to be the watchword.

Progress on the Dover Point bridge is not entirely satisfactory. At the present rate it will not be completed this summer.

Increase in night work is contemplated in order to further speed up the work.

The work of dredging in front of the launch ways will soon be completed very shortly.

THEY FOUND WINE HID IN THE HAY

Innocent Man Must Face the Court; First Case Under the Lewis Law.

On the clean-up day a Dover liquor dealer did a good turn and the friend got in bad. The retiring liquor man discovered at the last minute had a barrel of some wine in his cellar and wishing to get rid of the grape juice, gave it to the friend who conducts a stable nearby. The friend quietly removed the wine to the hay loft where he buried it under the dried grass, intending to make vinegar of it later.

He left town a few days later for the day and one of the other stable hands ran into the hidden cask while feeding hay to the horses. It was old home day for him and he lapped up enough of the contents to interfere with his steering gear. Before he took the count he whispered to a friend that there were liquids in the hay and the second consumer lost no time in partaking of the fermented stimulant. He hit the mat also and one of the other of them was tagged by the police who naturally were anxious to know why Dover was not absolutely dry and what was the origination of the unexpected jags.

One of the two told the police there was booze in the hay and the cops did the rest. Anyhow the innocent man was ordered to face the court and tell why he didn't start the vinegar making at once. This is the first case for Dover under the Lewis law and the situation is such that the outcome is awaited anxiously.
